ARTICLE 2 - PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

2.01 Background & Objectives - General

British Columbians continue to face significant challenges as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Recovering from the pandemic will require focused direction, strong alignment and ongoing engagement between public sector organizations and the Government of British Columbia. Rebuilding British Columbia's tourism industry while the path of recovery from COVID-19 and the long-term impacts of the pandemic on the tourism industry and British Columbia society in general, are not fully understood or predictable, will require that Destination BC, its partners and service providers and the agreements that govern their relationships, be flexible, agile and responsive to changing circumstances over the next three years. The benefits of this Shared Cost Arrangement will only be fully realized if the partners collaborate strongly, plan together and create mechanisms to respond quickly to potentially rapidly changing circumstances.

Government has set the following five overarching foundational principles for the entire public sector that inform all of Destination BC's policies, programs, services, and services provided on behalf of Destination BC:

- Putting people first;
- Lasting and meaningful reconciliation;
- Equity and anti-racism;
- A better future through fighting climate change; and
- A strong, sustainable economy that works for everyone.

Further to the foundational principle of lasting and meaningful reconciliation, Destination BC's work is governed by British Columbia's "United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act" and the "Draft Principles that Guide the Province of British Columbia's Relationship with Indigenous Peoples." Programs and Services provided by, or on behalf of Destination BC will be consistent with the Act and the Draft Principles.

As a Crown agency, Destination BC also operates under the Taxpayer Accountability Principles: efficiency, accountability, appropriate compensation, service, respect, and integrity, ensuring Destination BC's programs reflect the priorities and values of government and their shareholders—the citizens of B.C.

Destination BC's 2020/21-2022/23 Corporate Strategy, related Global Marketing and Destination Development Strategies, and the Super, Natural British Columbia® brand all align with Destination BC's legislated purpose, as articulated in the Destination BC Corp. Act. Destination BC's annual Mandate Letter identifies the Government and Minister's specific priorities for the Corporation each year.

Destination BC has a long-standing contractual relationship with BC's Regional Destination Management Organizations ("RDMO"). Although each RDMO delivers services on behalf of Destination BC, each is an independent organization with its own Board of Directors and governance. Destination BC enters into agreements with each RDMO to support the achievement of Destination BC's key strategic priorities and increase the net benefits of tourism for all British Columbians and create long-term competitiveness for BC's tourism industry. "Net benefits" simultaneously considers social, cultural, environmental, and economic benefits, and costs.

- As set out in the Destination BC's 2021/22-2023/24 Service Plan
 - Goal 3 to create a "Powerful Marketing Network"

"Objective 3.1: Collaborate with Regional Destination Management Organizations, and other key stakeholders, partners, and communities to align and focus on collective marketing and destination development efforts."
 - Destination BC will continue to work with the Ministry of Tourism, Arts, Culture and Sport and the RDMOs on the strategic planning and reporting of the Destination Development Program to ensure alignment with provincial tourism priorities outlined in the Strategic Framework for Tourism in B.C. and Destination BC's 'Invest in Iconics' strategy.

Invest in Iconics Strategy

Background

The Invest in Iconics strategy is a key element of Destination BC's 2020-23 Corporate Strategy. The Invest in Iconics strategy supports the revenue growth target in the (pre-CVOID) Strategic Framework for Tourism in BC and to achieve greater dispersion of the benefits of tourism throughout British Columbia. To dramatically increase tourism revenue and net benefits responsibly and sustainably, travellers need truly compelling reasons to travel to more places in British Columbia in more seasons. The Invest in Iconics Strategy was informed by an extensive review of global best practices, 300+ existing travel routes and destinations in BC, research on our core markets and the Destination Development strategies developed within the 19 planning areas and four regions.

Since the strategy was initially developed, the COVID-19 pandemic has had a devastating impact on the tourism industry. While the tourism industry's priorities have temporarily shifted to focus on business survival and continuity, Destination BC continues to develop this strategy (albeit it at a different pace) to ensure BC's recovery and renewal in what will be a very competitive international environment.

The Invest in Iconic strategy focuses on creating, branding, and marketing travel routes and destinations to grow BC's tourism revenue by incrementally increasing seasonal dispersion of travelers to mature destinations and geographic dispersion of visitors to high-potential destinations around BC. Integral to this strategy is the integration of place branding and place making:

Iconics – Place Branding

- Place branding uncovers and elevates the unique appeal and identity of a destination, then distills it into a strategic positioning with differentiating characteristics that are competitively distinctive and globally compelling.

Iconics – Place Making

- Place Making is an approach to the design, management, and enhancement of destinations for both residents and travellers. It involves working collaboratively with governments, industry partners, residents, and brand experts to turn a destination's vision into reality, by strategically deliberate in the creation of experiences, products and services that elevate and deliver on the place brand's unique selling proposition.

Integrated place branding and place making has the power to dramatically increase interest in and travel to destinations and enhance the in-destination experience for residents and visitors, fueling sustainable growth for British Columbia's tourism industry.

Objectives (long term)

- World famous travel routes and destinations that drive increased revenue and benefits for all parts of British Columbia, in all seasons, creating a year-round robust tourism sector in BC;
- Traveler and resident expectations are exceeded – experiences deliver on the brand promise, creating positive word of mouth fueling future visitation;
- Strong industry support and alignment – tourism organizations, businesses, operators, and workers are proud to market themselves as part of an Iconic and see direct business benefits from doing so;
- Compelling public and private tourism development opportunities and funding/financing mechanisms for investment; and

- Creating a better province for all British Columbians – enhanced job opportunities, livability, and enjoyment of all parts of BC for its residents.

Year by year objectives will be evolve as the program matures and will be determined through the annual Integrated Planning Process.
